DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Claims 2-3, 5-9, 17-23 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected inventions, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 12/28/2007.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claims 1, 10-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ding et al-6,120,536.

As to claims 1 and 10-14, Ding-'536 (abstract, col. 5, line 35 to col. 6, line 55) discloses a stent of stainless steel or nitinol or tantalum including an inner layer of a hydrophobic polymeric material and an outer layer dissolvable having heparin for prevention of a blood vessel's re-stenosis. Inherently, when Ding-'536 stent made of a tantalum material having outer coating or coatings is inserted into a blood vessel one will have 1st Hounsfield number measured at the time of insertion. After insertion, the coating or coatings will elute gradually to expose the tantalum. Because the tantalum material is a radiologic material, tantalum in the stent will become more visible as the coating(s) are thinner and present less of a barrier to viewing the tantalum material (2nd Hounsfield number).

As to claims 1 and 10-14, alternatively, it is well known that one needs to view a stent inside a patient. It would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide a density enhancing radiologic material in a Ding-'536's stent so that one can facilitate viewing the stent in a patient.

2. Claims 15-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Ding et al-6,120,536.

It is well known that one can view and track a stent inside a patient body with a CT or a MR. Inherently, one can use a CT or a MR to view a stent in a patient.

Alternatively, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to make Ding-'536 stent visible under imaging beam CT or MR so that one can track the stent location in a patient body.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 4, is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ding et al-6,120,536 in view of Ning-6,298,110 B1.

Ding-'536 discloses substantially the claimed invention, except for the radiologic material as recited in the claim. However, iodinated contrast is well known material that can be seen in a patient with a CT or MR procedure. Ning-'110 (col. 6, lines 16-18) discloses iodinated contrast to facilitate viewing inside a patient with a CT. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide an iodinated contrast in an object, such as a Ding-'536 stent, in a patient so that the stent can be seen with a CT.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
